We're going to the mountains Wednesday!!

Please use the packing list to pack. All essential items need to be included, PLEASE! A list went home again today in their yellow folder.

Although the weather forecast looks good, weather in the mountains can be unpredictable, so pack the rain gear, and cool weather clothes.

Please be at the garden parking area by 8:30 Wednesday morning (8:15 if you're driving).

Find your driver and load up! (car groups are listed below). Remember to bring a lunch (unless you signed up for a school lunch), a snack and water bottle in your daypack.

Call me if your child gets sick, or with last minute concerns or questions (707-217-0624)

We'll be back on Friday at around 5:00. Your child will be in touch with you enroute with a firmer ETA.

The number for Ross Relles is 530-470-0344 and for Malakoff Diggins State Park is: 530 – 265 – 2740. These should only be called for urgent business. The cell phone service is quite spotty at Ross Relles.

 Lunch will need to be folded into the final rotation. Please plan accordingly!

Town tour, roles & approximate times:

- Livery stable: Jacqueline as One-eyed Chalie delivers the mail on the front porch of the visitor center (15 minutes)
- Skidmore House: (10 minutes)
- Pharmacy: (10 minutes) Breanna
- General Store: Kelsey/Olivia – sell candy! (10 minutes)
- Saloon (40 minutes): Rachel as Lola Montez & Gaia as her trusty barmaids, gambling encouraged Gino, Jacob & Andy will be in the saloon and will stage a heated argument (brawl?) over hydraulic mining.
- Museum: tour museum and watch movie (stop before ruling on hydraulic mining): (30 minutes). Extra time for free time, snack and/or lunch.

Parents in character: Try to talk up tonight's big town hall meeting - Judge Sawyer is coming to town! Townspeople and miners – your livelihoods are tied to the continuation of hydraulic mining. Farmers & fishermen – you are in town for the meeting and are not in favor of hydraulic mining as you are having to deal with thousands of tons of tailings in the rivers and Central Valley, which is creating floods, destruction of fisheries, etc. Lots of potential to model the debate in front of the kids, which will help them later.

All parents should try to watch the video in the museum – it is dated and biased but will give you some good background and visuals on hydraulic mining. Susan will help with transitions between groups. The park ranger will tour us through the buildings. Parents who are dressing up – you can dress up back at Ross Relles, or, if you want to surprise the kids, you can dress at the park in the bathroom.

Afternoon – The cemetery and creek are about a 15-minute walk from each other, and from town (a big triangle). Parents can join their kid's groups. Parents can choose whether to remain in costume/character. Susan will fill parent group leaders how to get from place to place.

Cemetery & Schoolhouse: Susan & Kelsey
With special appearances from Rachel & Kenzo as local Nisenan at the schoolhouse and Ryan, as the State Engineer at the overlook.

Creek-panning: Danielle, Jacob & Olivia

We will switch groups at the small overlook across from the church & up the road from the creek.

We'll meet back in town at 4:15 (please be punctual).

Our hope is to drive up through the campground (with Sue, the park ranger, in the lead) to the Diggings Overlook. We'll just spend a little time there - it's a great view and a terrific place for a group picture.

Then back to camp for free time and dinner.

PARENTS: PLEASE BE VIGILANT ABOUT KEEPING EVERYONE OFF THE MAIN ROAD – in town and between town and the creek.
While there's very little traffic, cars and trucks have been known to barrel through.

Chaperone Schedule and Clean up Schedule

This schedule has been established to help you relax and not feel like you have to be "on" at all times. Of course, even when you aren't on duty, please keep an eye-out for any potential issues. Feel free to trade shifts. Please see Kelsey for any serious issues regarding student conflicts or discipline. Mining groups are assigned to clean up after meals (see schedule below).

Ground Rules at Ross Relles

- Afternoon free time - kids must be outside, in lodge or on porch, no cabins unless a parent is there, or they have permission from Kelsey
- Stick to boundaries - Kids outside must keep an adult in sight of them at all times. It's up to the kids to do this.
- Come right to lodge when called
- No running or rough housing in lodge
- Only use the slide with an adult present. Stick to our school slide rules.
- Clean up after yourself in lodge, bathrooms and cabins
- Girls can't go to boy's cabin area and boys can't go into girl's cabin area
- No food in cabins
- Quiet hours: 9:15 pm – 7:00 am. If you're up before 7:00, read, draw or daydream – don't wake up others.
- No going into the lodge before 7:15 am without an adult
- Be respectful of facilities and equipment - remember, we are guests here!
- Mining groups are assigned to clean up after one meal. All must pitch in – clear and wash down tables, sweep, push in chairs – see schedule.
- Be kind to and respectful of each other – no excluding or teasing of any kind
- Ask an adult for help if you need it
- Have fun; be kind. Tell an adult/Kelsey if you are feeling upset or uncomfortable about anything.
